To The Students:

As editors of the DIAL, we are taking an opportunity to announce the 50th anniversary of the yearbook and to explain some of the problems and changes that took place this year. First of all — it's 1973 and what better time for the anniversary of Carbondale Community High School's yearbook — the Dial! Except for a one year break during the war, the DIAL has been faithfully produced for fifty years. Having been involved in the production makes us pretty impressed with that record! The '73 DIAL has a few outstanding features worth mentioning here. The cartoon drawings introducing the four class sections were chosen not only to characterize individually the classes but to recall images from days gone by. Throughout this DIAL reprint of pictures from past DIALS were used to contrast 1973 with previous years. The function of a yearbook is to capture the essence of a school year. In this DIAL we have tried to show the life of CCHS in 1973 by using glimpses of the past as a backdrop.

One notable change this year, is the discontinuation of the DIAL dedication. As editors we felt that the dedication had outlived its function as an integral part of the yearbook. There are MANY faculty members who are deserving of recognition for their outstanding achievements in and out of the classroom. The DIAL has recognized only one teacher a year; the teacher being chosen only by a majority vote of the DIAL editorial and business staffs. For these reasons, we choose to discard the traditional dedication and to simply commend all past and present faculty members of CCHS.

Many factors contributed to the tardiness of the 1973 DIAL. It must be pointed out that the advisorship of the DIAL changed hands and the decision of who was to be the advisor was made late in the fall, when the yearbook should have been well underway. Another problem arose with the professional photographer. It is essential that a yearbook receive its photographs on time in order to meet company deadlines. It will suffice to say this did not take place. Very little co-operation and help was given to the editors by the members of the DIAL editorial staff. The staff was unusually small, ineffective, and apathetic, leaving the majority of the book to be constructed by the editors. However, our thanks and appreciation to the few staff members who did their share and are recognized in the staff listing on the DIAL page in the Organization section of the book! We hope the student body can enjoy the 1973 DIAL and perhaps actively support and appreciate the effort put into the DIAL in future years.

Sincerely,

Wendy Freitag and Linda Stocks,

Co-Editors

'73 finds a change in the name and clique!

'73 revived the Homecoming bonfire, a traditional activity of Homecoming week-ends in the past.

What's all the hassle about?

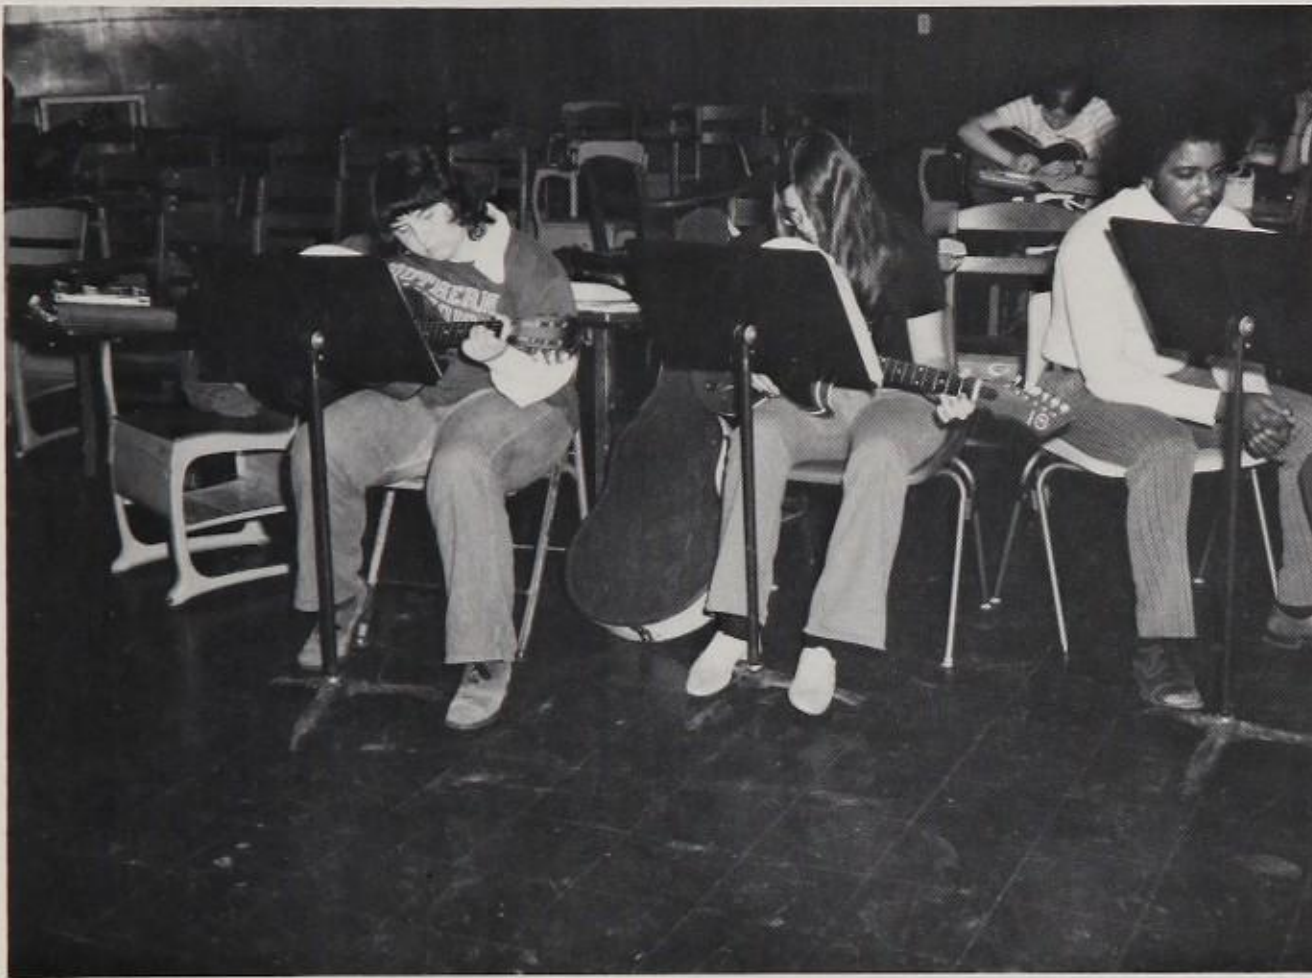

Students' interests have certainly changed!

Believe it or not — the Pep Club of yesteryear.

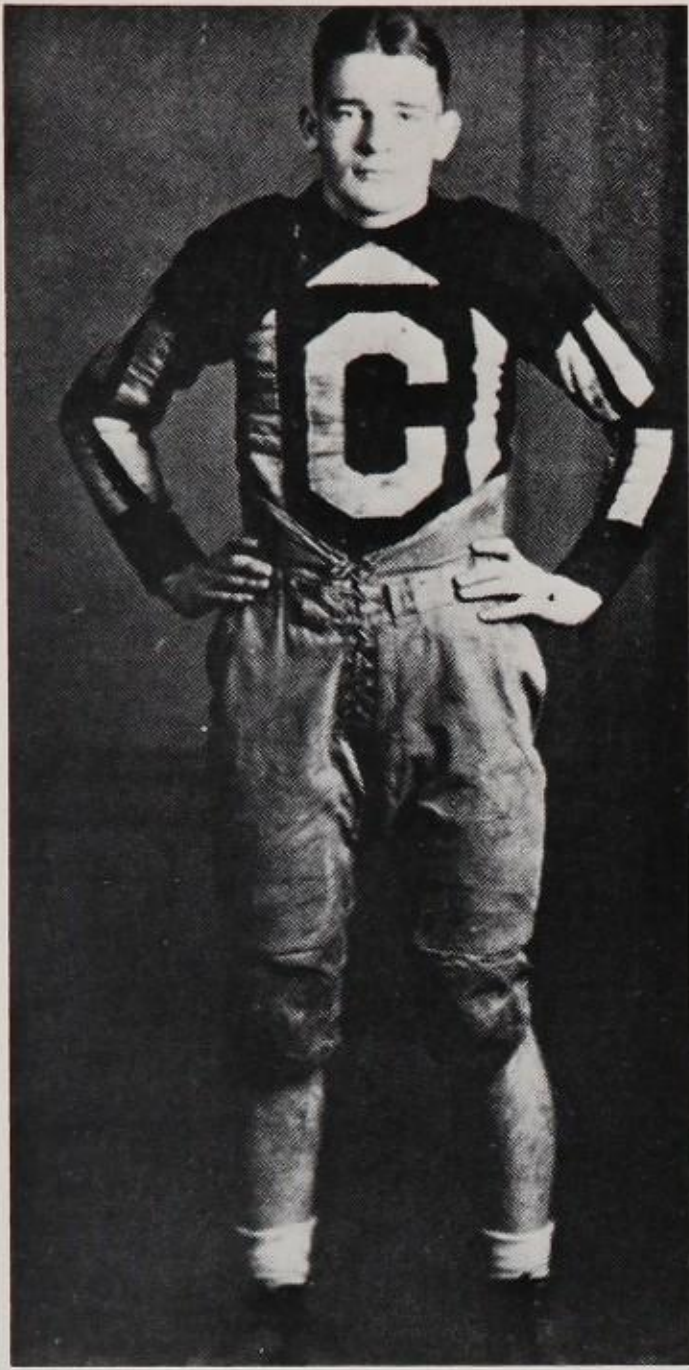

The classes offered today are of a much greater variety in comparison with the curriculum offered in previous years at CCHS.

Some things never change!

Styles come and go.

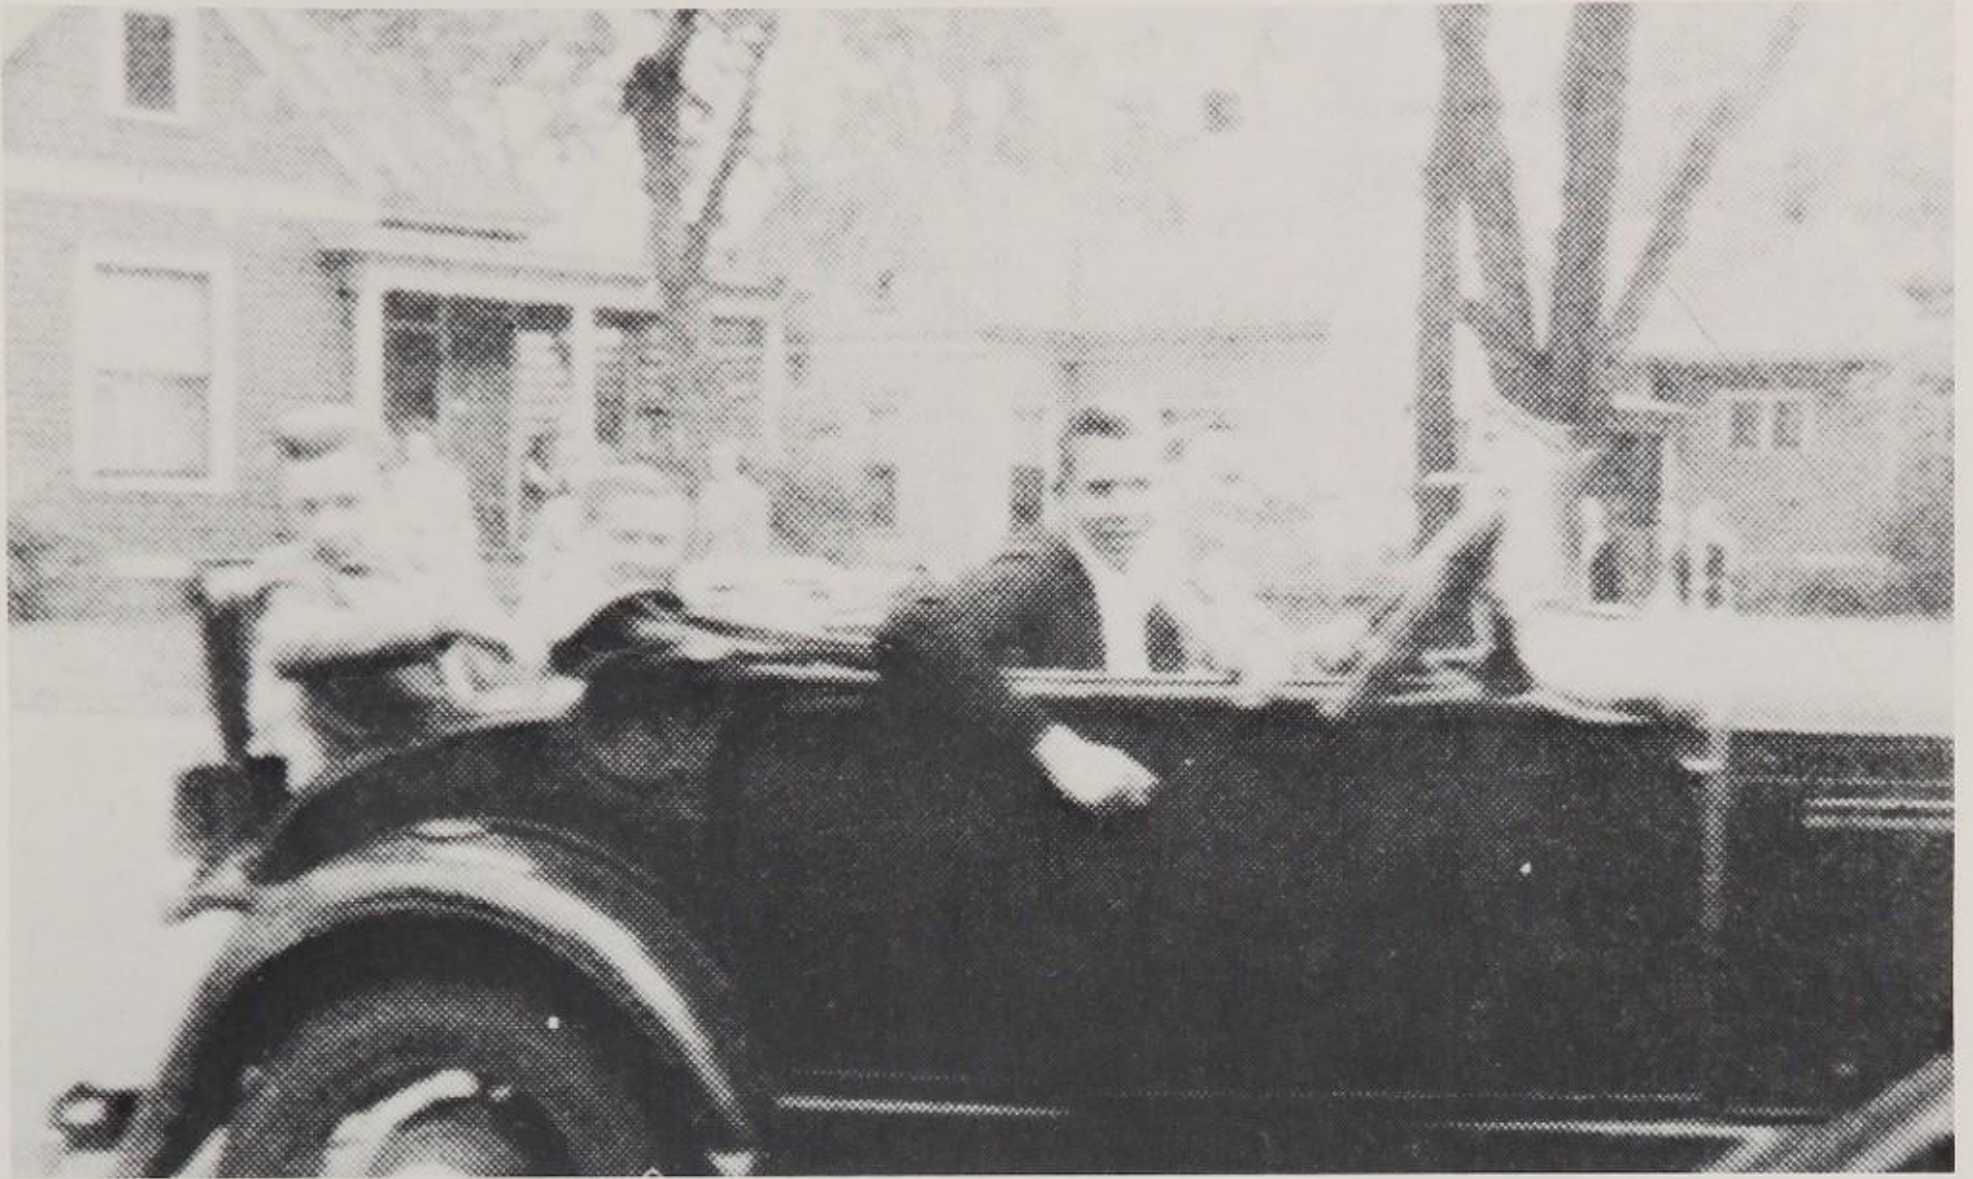

Thank goodness
some traditions
pass into history!

How: a) cute
b) romantic
c) mushy
d) sweet
e) all of the above

To The Students:

The Organization section of this yearbook has a different look this year. A quick glance will tell you that something is missing. A second, more scrutinizing look will tell you that not only the information about the clubs is gone, but the names of the members of all but the tiniest clubs have also vanished! A few words of explanation are necessary.

First of all the DIAL gives a sheet requesting specific information (like the name, for instance) about the club to all sponsors of clubs, to use for the yearbook. This year the response was at an all time low and the question that came to mind was: "Is it the DIAL editors' job to go to each individual club and gather facts and interesting information about the club's activities?" We thought not.

The lack of names is regretful and resulted from mix-ups and hassles on the days on which group pictures were being taken. We hope you will take an opportunity to collect the specific names you wish to remember and also will make an effort to cooperate more fully on days when group pictures are taken in the future.

As the gridiron season rolled around, the young, inexperienced Terriers were hard at work. Likewise, was Coach Pollock and his new coaching staff which included Coach Schoch and Coach Lee.

As September 15 finally came, the optimistic pups traveled to Cape Girardeau to be put down 47-0 by the second rated team in the state of Missouri. The next week the Terriers got into the winning track with a 7-0 win over Centralia. Next came two very close losses, one against Herrin and the other against Urbana. Then a 6-0 homecoming win over Marion initiated a four game winning streak over West Frankfort, Harrisburg, and Benton.

Carbondale closed out the season with two disappointing losses. The first one was to an excellent, veteran Murphysboro club, and the final was to the Mt. Vernon Rams on the astro-turf at McAndrew Stadium.

The young Terriers were on the inexperienced side on offense as quarterback Lance Laybourn had only two seniors, Dave Woolard and captain Keith Reissaus. The first half of the season the offense was punchless as they scored only 27 points. Finally things started to roll as the offense combined for a total of 97 points the second half of the season. Veteran, "Livewire," Billy Livesay had a very hard time getting a foothold in the turf in the '72 season as the Terrier gridders played seven of their games in the rain or on a muddy field.

On the other side of the line, the defense was as strong as the offense was weak. The defense held a nine to ten senior stand throughout most of the season. They had the experience, but once again they lacked in size. Aside from the Cape Central stomp the Terrier "D" held opponents to 89 points, in a total of nine games.

Although the 5-5 season wasn't very promising the future season will prove to be a very interesting one as the '73 pups will return and have the experience and numbers needed to compete in South Seven competition. They have already been predicted among the top ranks of the South. As stated before by Terrier coaches, "We'll be back next year."

As the 1972 school year opened, Coach Bob Odum was having serious doubts about the up and coming wrestling season. The previous year had been an excellent one but this year only promised two returnees. Curt Parrish and Steve Knewitz, both captains for the 72-73 season, would have to carry the standard of experience.

The year progressed and the practices grew harder. Coach Odum was really driving his inexperienced team, for the first meet was not far away. He soon realized that he would have to enter the season with only three seniors, but injuries soon eliminated two thirds of the four year wrestlers. Doug Frost broke an ankle putting him on the disabled list and Russ Ragsdale received a severe thumb injury adding him also to the wounded warrior rolls.

Much to the surprise of Carbondale wrestling fans, the Terriers improved vastly, compiling a deceiving 7 and 10 dual meet record against more experienced teams in the South. The Terriers lost by 3 points to Jackson, Missouri, a team who finished fourth in the Missouri State Meet.

In tournament action, the wrestling Terriers were their most brilliant. Carbondale finished third in the Murdale Tourney capturing a first, three seconds, and a third by Charlie Bursey, Terry Covington, Curt Parrish, Steve Knewitz, and Darryl Ritter respectively. The Terriers had improved by District time placing second as a team. First place victories went to Terry Covington, Curt Parrish, Charlie Bursey and Steve Knewitz. Among other individual winnings was Doug Knewitz claiming a second and Darryl Ritter with a third place.

Next year's prospects appear outstanding. Coach Odum will lose only one starter in the person of Steve Knewitz. However, Steve's position will be readily filled and the Terriers should go on to capture the South Seven title, a new addition to Southern Illinois wrestling. With a returning cast of eight juniors, the Terriers could have an unprecedented undefeated season.

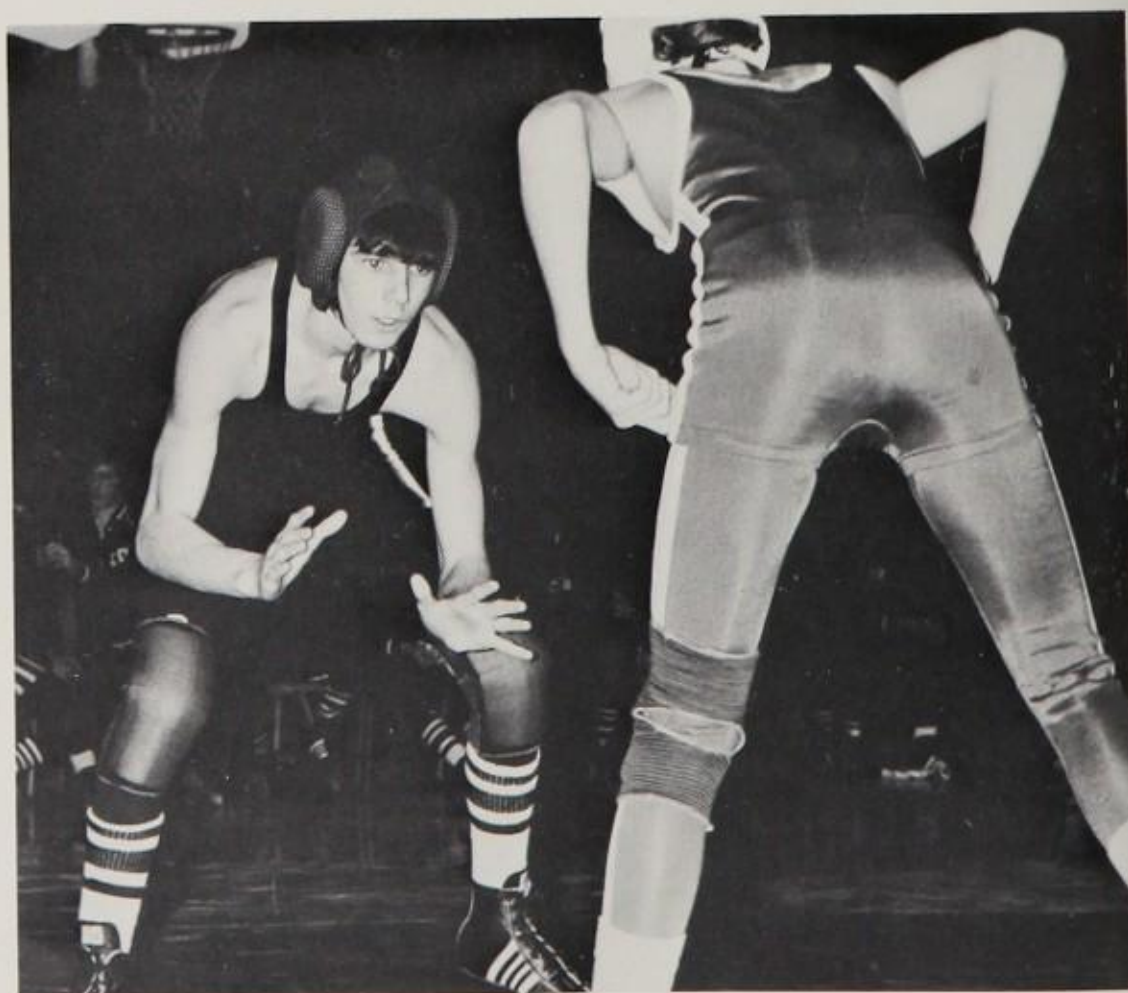

Knewitz is definitely not good for the complexion.

On the hardcourt, the basketball Terriers experienced a rough 5 and 17 season. Burdened by lack of size and experience, the hardworking Terriers proved to be very surprising at times. After the first game jilt by a state rated Quincy team, Dave Lee's crew found it difficult to get started. Following the Quincy bout they took on Murphy, Herrin and Mt. Vernon which combined for a very tough opening. Then came a very disappointing loss to the Marion Wildcats, as the Terriers lost 59 to 61 in the final seconds.

The Carbondale Holiday Tourney brought a large and talented field of basketball talent to the SIU Arena. On a first game bout, the Terriers were unfortunate to draw Collinsville, the eventual tourney champs. Another disappointing loss arrived for the Terriers as they were downed 55-62 in a consolation game with Marion.

After experiencing an abundant amount of turnovers in the early season going, Coach Lee changed his tactics to a more controlled, slow-down type of offense. This offense surprised an overconfident Benton ball club which was defeated in a 39-43 upset. Two games later the Terriers defeated DuQuoin 55-45. The Terriers had trouble finding another win until six games later, when they beat Harrisburg 67-60. The following game they downed Centralia 60-58. Three more games went by without production of a win until they tackled Harrisburg in a final, regular season win, 75-66.

The Herrin Tigers defeated the Terriers in a first round regional game 68-56.

One of the most remembered basketball games in Terrier history came about mid-season in a conference game at Mt. Vernon. The Terriers employed their slow down, control type offense. Carbondale had control of the ball the entire first and third quarters. Scoring was done in both the second and fourth quarters. The Terriers suffered a 15-14 loss on that outing. But credit must certainly be given to a team which held the basketball for such long periods as they did. In this type of game, one has to think of the self control mentally as well as physically, in addition to competing with outside pressures brought about by the crowd and the opposing team.

Seniors Carl Favreau and Keith Reissaus led the Terriers in practically every statistical column. Carl led in shooting percentages as Keith barely clipped him in total points, (284-271). Carl also led in assists and recoveries with 51 and 29 respectively and Keith in rebounds with 132.

The 1973-74 Terriers will return without a doubt, but may be among the missing without Favreau, Reissaus and Jim Jenkins to help them out.

FOURTH ROW: Larry Deniston, John Doe, Ken Smith, Calvin McDaniel, Tom Minetree, Roger Lipe, Scott Crawley, Terry Covington, Lee Taylor, Ed Long, Joe Lenzini, David Woolard.

A well executed Terrier exchange.

Max makes first place look easy as he glides by the clocks and through the tape.

Dave Woolard skims over the low hurdles in perfect form.

Brad Luebke — a leader in the mile and the two-mile.

Underclassmen, Greg Withers, Roger Lipe, and Keith Ellis provides much depth in the hurdles.

Turn this page sideways and look at the tight rope walker.

Tyrone Margrum led the 880 yard relay to a new school record of 1:32.4.

Girls Sports Program

A new by-law approved by the Illinois High School Association made possible the eligibility of girls in high school competitive sports. Coach Kay Strack immediately took advantage of this sponsorship of girls' sports. Since that time CCHS has successfully developed girls' teams in the volleyball, basketball, softball and track and field competitive areas.

Enough credit can never be given to Miss Strack for her attention and dedication given to girls' athletics. With the assistance of Mr. Reid Martin, the administration and her student teachers, schedules were planned, tryouts were held, teams chosen and long hard practice sessions began. Miss Strack began researching the do's and don'ts of competitive sports. Much was to be learned in the areas of coaching and rules and regulations, as well as the training and conditioning of the girls.

On the whole the first year for girls' competitive athletics at CCHS was a tremendous success. Hats off to Miss Strack and all the hardworking dedicated girls who made the girls' athletic program what it was!

VOLLEYBALL TEAM A:

Cherry concentrates.

Terrier Thalman executes a chest pass to a "fellow" teammate.

Donna "towers" over her opponent in jump ball competition.

Deep concentration goes into Kathi Motti's discus throw.

Cathy Casey is "highly" successful at her jump.

Girls too are capable of a little style and form in athletics, as demonstrated by Donna Towers.

Freshmen composed a large part of the CCHS girls' track team.

Prom '72

Prom 1972 featured an outstanding band and the music was certainly responsible for much of the enjoyment shared by the couples who attended. The dance was held at the University Center and After-Prom festivities were held on the DuQuoin State Fair grounds.

The crowning of a new queen always brings the excitement to a peak and this year a very lovely Carmen Gibbs was crowned. It was, of course, the individual who had to contribute the most to a long evening and so it was that each couple parted at the end with tired bodies and many varied thoughts and memories.

Homecoming

Homecoming 1973 was one of traditions and changes. The bonfire, an old, lost tradition, was once again revived and was enjoyed by many as they sang and danced around the fire. The theme of the dance was "The Kingdom of Atlantis" and King Neptune presided over the occasion at CCHS East. A radiant and bubbling Nancy Lipe was crowned queen of the Homecoming dance.

The homecoming football game was played against the Marion Wildcats and the Terriers proved to be too tough for them. Another exciting event of the homecoming weekend was the parade which was held after school on Friday. A mixed display of beautiful queen candidates, laughable clowns, and tipsy floats made the parade quite a show.

Instruments of every kind thundered down the streets of Carbondale on a sunny Friday afternoon.

Much to the surprise and disappointment of the Seniors, the Sophomores took first place in the float competition.

With the shortage of convertibles these days, Jana, Camille and Janet had to share their parade transportation.

Sno-Ball

The crowning of Karen Carlock as the 1973 Sno-Ball Queen lent a very interesting angle to the dance. As Karen was the third member of the Carlock family to be crowned Sno-Ball queen, it was as if a cycle had been completed as the crown and roses went to her. The dance this year was again held at the Carbondale Teen Center.

The Christmas theme and atmosphere of the dance was carried out by the fantastic tunes of the band, the crepe paper ceiling, evergreen boughs, candles, strings of lights and the throne decor. This dance which comes when the holiday spirit is on the rise was fun for the couples who had attended — true to form.

Prom '73

The University Center was again the scene of another Carbondale Community High School Prom. Unlike other years however, After Prom was also held at the Center with the students making use of the pool room, bowling, a band and free refreshments. This change was not the only one which makes the 1973 Prom unique, for surprisingly enough two queens were crowned, breaking with past traditions. The break was met with both delight and dismay by the couples attending the Prom for the decision was unpublicized prior to the announcement at coronation.

In spite of the differences or because of them, the couples who attended Prom '73 displayed, in general, glowing faces and bright personalities.

CLASSES

Ten Outstanding Seniors

The faculty members cast their votes to elect the Ten Outstanding Seniors of CCHS. Any senior ranking scholastically in the upper one fourth of his graduating class is eligible for this honor. However as well as the scholastic achievement, the faculty is also asked to consider the character, leadership, and service of the students during their four years of attendance at CCHS. It is the combination of these traits and still others which narrows a fairly large field of seniors to the ten most outstanding.

What is so outstanding about an Outstanding Senior? When the last bell rings, signifying the end of the school day, there are many students who for some reason or another do not end so abruptly their working day. For it is after school hours where the student participates in the many faceted extra curricular activities available at CCHS. For someone has to play in the band, march in parades, run student council meetings, practice for the big game, put together the yearbook, sing in the musical, read for the speech team and keep all the other activities and organizations on the go. Combine this leadership and service over a period of four years in high school, along with the maintainment of a high grade average, and a well rounded character, and you have an Outstanding Senior.

It isn't always so easy not to go home at three-thirty p.m. when that last bell rings, but dedication is what makes the Outstanding Senior so outstanding. For this reason, the DIAL congratulates and commends the Ten Outstanding Seniors of the class of 1973.

How you live is our business

Whatever is done — or undone — to improve the quality of our surroundings will require more energy, not less. And, while we have an obligation to provide that energy, we are determined to do so with a minimal effect on the environment.

. . . You finally got your yearbook!

Sandy!
I guess that
there isn't much to say.
As you know, writing in your books is rather difficult. It's been nice knowing you for all these years
you better keep in contact with me often you and Joseph take off!
Best wishes for Joe & yourself,
Sathy Davis

Sandy,
My last year of high school & I'm still not sure I'm going to make it. We have been friends for a long time (but now come every time Debbie & I got caught you were never there!) I'm going to miss you & Jennifer when you go.
So please write me & send a few pictures.

(Oh Man!) Good luck to you &
your family.
Sally

Landy,
Well after this year I guess I won't see much of you, which is good 'cause that means you'll be with Joe. Take good care of Jennifer - I know you will! Good luck

Leann
